FORT BENNING – Fort Benning will welcome a new commanding general at 7:30 a.m. Aug. 12 on York Field when Maj. Gen. Walter Wojdakowski assumes command of the U. S. Army Infantry Center.

Wojdakowski is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

He is no stranger to the Fort Benning community, having served here as a brigade commander from June 1993 to August 1995, and again from January 1997 to September 1998 when he served as the post's deputy commanding general.

He has served on active duty since 1972.

Freakley has been selected to serve as the division commander of the 10th Mountain Division at Fort Drum, N. Y.

Media planning to attend the change of command should coordinate their visit through the Fort Benning Public Affairs Office. For more information, call 545-3512 or 545-2236.
